

I. Correct the mistakes in the sentences.

1. We landed at Heathrow at six point fourty am.
2. I got fourteen on twenty on my test this morning.
3. I was born the two of february.
4. There was over two thousands people at the concert. It was fun seeing thousands people together.

II. How comfortable are you with large numbers?

| Look at this number →three hundred and thirty-fiveIf you write it with digital numbers... | 335    | ...and then turn yourworksheet upside down,you find an English word! → | SEE |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Write the numbers below using digital numbers:                                                    | Number | Word                                                                           |     |
| five hundred and seven thousand,seven hundred and thirty-four                                 |        |                                                                                |     |
| three hundred andseventy- nine thousand, and nine                                             |        |                                                                                |     |
| five million three hundred and eighteen thousand,eight hundred and four                       |        |                                                                                |     |