

A decorative border of various books and open pages surrounds the central text area. The books are in different colors (blue, red, orange, white) and some have bookmarks or tabs sticking out. The background is a solid teal color.

Unit 2: Cozy English village mysteries

Axe: Le village, le quartier, la ville

Focus: Villages, neighborhoods and cities

KEY QUESTION: What makes the English village a perfect setting for mystery?

The background is a teal color with a white border. The border is decorated with various illustrations of books and papers. At the top, there are several open books in different colors (blue, red, orange) and a small paper scrap with a question mark and some text. On the left side, there are more books and a paper scrap. On the right side, there are books and a yellow highlighter. At the bottom, there are books and a paper scrap.

You will receive a text: it is the beginning of one of the 3 books!

Read it and highlight the words you know
(+ transparent words) to see which of the 3 books you have!

FIND THE CORRECT TITLE !

Join a group of 3 or 4 people with the same story.

The Cherrywood Murders,
by Penny Blackwell

Hypotheses:

The text must be a....

It may take place....

It may be about

The Cherrywood Murders

Who?

Where?

When?

What?

De la compréhension écrite à la production écrite:
quelle activité proposez vous?

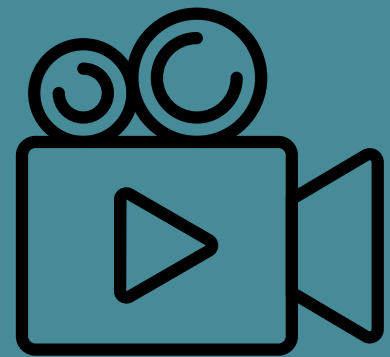

The Murder at the Vicarage

By Agatha Christie, 1930

LET'S PLAY A GAME

LET'S WATCH A VIDEO

What type of document is it?
What could it be about?

