

C1	IRA Volunteer (people who fight for a cause) 1971 one year before bloody sunday Stormont is the Parliament/	-Clear expl (IRA in the shadow/ British everywhere controlling the population= cause and consequence / vicious circle) good friday agreement 1998 - IRA's violence> destroys families/ but occupation of British ? (UDR for Noël, territory for Ken)	Despite the intro (by loyalist and republican) we only read one side of the conflict. Newspaper> british ? Only 2 testimonies out of 3
B2	Dolours Price really existed 33 days before (in 1984) Noel> UDR (military so legal ≠ UVF paramilitary) 3 men but only two testimonies Comparison or contrast (main character IRA/ attacked by IRA)	Although Chrissie new the risks she did things she didn't want to protect her daughter/ she doesn't show she's worried but one night D saw her mom cry. Ken now works as an advocate for victim's rights What is happening ? People are testifying about past events. (diff past/present) Comparison or contrast : fear of bomb (doc A 1,30/ real bomb ripped Noel's leg) the origin vs the consequences. Victims/ guilty ?	Doc A : lexical field of violence by the army (thrown up against, forced to take off) . The reader sides with the worried mother (implore, silent, cry, fear) Doc B : voc of pathos (devastating, torn apart, terrorists, holding back tears, ordeal) story telling pathos (friendly neighbours turning against Protestant farmers> riddled with bullets run away cheering, too ols and devastated) only loyalists's pt of view
B1	Details on 1 or 2 aspects (quarter master > rank in the army so IRA considered itself as army) British army checkpoint (british soldiers seen as invaders by Republicans/ calm vs violent atmosphere) Terms loyalist/unionist and republican (correctly used) Situation in NI in 1970s	- living in occupied Belfast. - hiding gun because she's older and less likely to get caught -lost his leg in an attack> nightmares/depression (examples of conseq) - killed ken's brother to get them move away.	Novel > biography (Dolours Price really existed) sides with republican > article by a local newspaper + presents as neutral/ sides with loyalists
A2	Dolours Price/ mother Chrissie Price/ IRA member/ Army checkpoint Belfast 1971 street/house Three men at Stormont/ Belfast on Victims Day Noël Downeylost a leg Ken Funston's brother	Subject of A : a mother and daughter walking in Belfast + hiding a gun + burying in the garden + worried/cried. Doc B : a hearing of testimonies years after the end of the Troubles to listen to the victims. Attacks during the Troubles (psychological and physical trauma)	Nature of doc : extract of a novel extract of article
